ECONOCOM ANNOUNCES SÉBASTIEN MUSSET'S APPOINTMENT AS MANAGING DIRECTOR FRANCE

Puteaux, 14 September 2017 – After joining Econocom in October 2016 as Group Executive Director in charge of Transformation and Resources, Sébastien Musset is now also Managing Director of Econocom in France.

2017 is a pivotal year for Econocom as it concludes its "Mutation 2013-2017" strategic plan. The Group's objectives for the coming years reflect strong ambitions for France, in line with the dynamic of its next strategic plan, "e for excellence".

Robert Bouchard, Group Chief Operating Officer, explained: "Ever since he joined Econocom, Sébastien has brought, through his daily commitment and his leadership, a real innovative dynamic to Econocom Group. I'm delighted that he'll be continuing, with me, the groundwork he's already begun, so that together we can rise to the challenge of the digitalisation of companies."

Sébastien Musset, Managing Director France and Group Executive Director in charge of Transformation &

Resources, said: "I'm proud of the role I've been tasked with. To rise to the challenges of digital transformation, our clients need to be able to rely on Econocom as a major, agile partner that can support them in a world where use has become the main driving force. Econocom benefits from a fantastic internal network of knowhow. The Group's development must take advantage of these skills so that together we can accelerate the building of cross-disciplinary offers that deliver genuine added value to our clients. This approach, supported by our powerful partner ecosystem, means we can offer end users the most innovative, reliable, intuitive digital solutions!"
